

I urge you NOT to let airplane passengers use cellphones. It's uncomfortable enough flying these days. To have someone yakking into a cellphone next to me for long periods when I'm trying to read or rest sounds like a nightmare. Just because it's safe technically doesn't mean it's ok socially.